

Intergalactic Securities & Management Corporation

Personal - ISMC

Intergalactic Securities is of course a business, but it is also very much personal. Why is it personal? It's exciting, intense, dynamic and full of possibility. This creates opportunity, the design engineering of capital structure, is all about ownership, control, voting, creating wealth and opportunity. This involves enterprise, technology, people, imagination and vision.

This includes an awesome panorama of detail, the prospectus, the ideas that fuel the world with hope, happiness, challenge and reward. This can be utilized just about anywhere in the world, but right now, the focus is in Canada, mostly Made in Canada and Product of Canada.

This exists to create new opportunity, empower the individual, enterprise, visionary, the finder/promoter and the investor. It exists to empower the economy, the community, industry, productivity and prosperity. It may seem like the window or door of opportunity, or something like a stargate portal to a whole new world, a parallel universe or maybe the future, the alternate reality that you envision and dream about.

Although this is a lot of work with a lot of responsibility, it is both challenging and rewarding, a special place where the vision of art and science is amplified with math, money and management with altruistic character to make new things possible.

This includes plenty of options and opportunity for the private investor, public stock markets, institutional investor, investment banker, and those involved in investment and wealth management, which all add to financial market capabilities and new opportunities.

This includes serious math and finance for accountants, financial managers, analysts and people that like to wonder and imagine "what if" scenarios, something relevant to what the enterprise mission and vision is about.

We don't expect to make excuses, only effort, not only to solve complex problems and logistical requirements, but create something new, exciting, visionary and better than anything else on this planet. When you hear, "Go big or go home" you may think of all of the exciting things in your imagination that you would like to do and you will know that you can envision, plan, build and manage anything...with Intergalactic Securities & Management Corporation.

Even though there is a lot of work and imagination going into the many aspects of a project, capital structure offers risk and reward, revenue streams and opportunity, the chance to be a part of something and make it happen, the time to get all the facts and do the math, as well as trust yourself, jump in with both feet and hit the ground running.

Intergalactic Securities also offers the chance to do something more, to be part of the solution, to invest your genius, connections, individual ability and enthusiasm, to be that somebody who dared to make a difference, no matter how small or big, known or unknown, those solid steps of confidence and trust, the idea of building something out of the thin air of imagination, ideas and ideals, to transform the present reality into the alternate reality, the one that is waiting to be born, materialized, transformed right before your eyes.

This idea of making a personal difference is incredibly very important and overlooked as there is more than plenty in society that is against the individual, the private enterprise, the nation builder, the nationalist, someone who wants more Made in Canada and Product of Canada.
